

Deepika Padukone's Valentine's Day plan does not include Ranveer Singh

Posted by Sumit | February 11, 2018

Deepika Padukone and Ranveer Singh is a happy couple. The most-talked-about couple of the Bollywood Film Industry has been dating each other since their movie, "Goliyon Ki Raasleela Ram-Leela".

À

Though the couple has not yet made any official announcement their appearances in public clearly show that both of them are planning to get engaged, this year only.

À

Both of them were seen moving hands-in hands showing their adorable love in public. This affectionate display of true love is what invites readers to think about the plans of the leading actress, Deepika Padukone, this Valentine's Day. À

Though the rumors of their wedding bells were going on rounds but in an interview, Ranveer said that he has no idea to where the news is coming from. Both the actor and the actress are busy with their work schedule and have no time for the marriage so on a personal front, his marriage has to wait.

On a chat show, Ranveer Singh had called Deepika, marriage material. The couple was seen performing in the Padmaavat although no scenes of togetherness were seen in the film.