Salman Khan and Sonakshi Sinha were seen together in the year 2010 in the Bollywood film titled, Dabangg. According to the actress, it was him who encouraged her to take acting as her professional career. She is always thankful to Salman for his suggestion.

After 6 years of their last movie, the couple would be seen sharing the same stage on the bigger screen. There is no denying the fact that the actress would work again in Dabangg 3, but before that, the duo would share the same stage on the Karan Johar film titled, Welcome to New York.

According to the latest reports from Mumbai Mirror, Salman and Sonakshi will share the stage in a song Nain Phisal Gaye. The last film of the actress, Sonakshi was Ittefaq. She is now really very excited to perform on stage with Salman for one more time. She is super excited to work with Salman after their stunning chemistry in Dabangg and Dabangg 2.

The new song by the duo is shot in New York City. The song is romantic and melodious. Both the characters have beautifully played their roles in the song.
