The episode started when the Diljit and Badshah shared their experience of performing in front of the audience for the first time in their life. Diljit started in his own village in Punjab and he said he was lucky to get that chance in his own village as he forgot the lyrics of his songs just after singing two lines. Badshah said that his career started on an adventurous note and he was sold to perform at a gay club in a gay party.

Diljit was questioned about model and TV celeb Kylie Jenner when KJo displayed screenshots of Diljit's comments on her profile. The singer-actor reacted by saying that I like her.
