

Dallas: A man was shot after four suspects forced themselves inside his home

Posted by Sumit | December 23, 2018

Dallas Police said they arrived to the 2900 block of Etta Drive after a male and his dog were shot around 10:45 p.m. The victim said four males forced themselves inside his home and restrained him.

According to the news the suspects then fled the scene.

One more victim was also inside the that home but was left unhurt. The victim who was shotted on the shoulder was rushed to a local hospital where he was treated for his gunshot wounds. The dog was also hurt who was taken to a veterinarian for surgery.

The investigation is in progress.