

Nation's oldest living veteran, Richard Overton died in a rehab facility in Austin

Posted by Sumit | December 28, 2018

Richard Overton, Nation's oldest living veteran died today in a rehab facility in Austin, Texas. He was the oldest living veteran of the nation who died at 112.

À

According to the family members, Overton was admitted to the hospital last week when he was diagnosed with pneumonia. His funeral on Jan 12 at 11.00am will be organized at Shoreline Church on Burnet Road.

À

When he turned 111, the city council named the street on which he lived for years, his name Richard Overton Avenue to honor him.