New Year's Eve 2019 is being handled by Southwest Airlines and driven by AT&T. You can expect to see fireworks on 93 different points of this tower. This is for the first time other Downtown Dallas buildings will be a part of the show that will begin at 11:30 p.m. After some time, everything will go dark before midnight and the New Year countdown will begin.

According to Matt Pearson, a pyrotechnician, they are adding a new effect called sunset wherein four corners or four quadrants of the sphere will be highlighted. It will be really a neat event that everyone would love to see.
