

Coppell Middle School West Teacher arrested for inappropriate behavior with a student.

Posted by Sumit | January 08, 2019

Coppell Middle School West Teacher has been arrested for behaving inappropriately with a student.

À

According to deputies of Dallas County sheriff, 45-year-old Julie Brewer was taken into custody yesterday afternoon. She was charged with behaving inappropriately with a minor after detectives found her exchanging inappropriate text and MMS with a student. The teacher of the school has resigned and she was reported to the State Board of Educator Certification by the state.

À

The district explained to parents that sending private messages to students inappropriately is a prohibited act. All social media interactions need to be public or through the official app set up by the district, district e-mail account or phone.