

Denton County deputies looking for three men in killing a family's two dogs and mutilated their bodies

Posted by Sumit | January 09, 2019

Denton County deputies are looking for three men involved in killing and mutilating the bodies of two dogs of a family.

À

According to Denton County Sheriff's Office, a severe storm hit Justin on December 14. It was then, Golden Retriever called JC and Nessa ran away from their yards. The homeowners then looked for their dogs that went missing after that incident happened.

À

When two dogs were found dead on Indian Trails Drive near Sam Reynolds Road in Justin, both of owners JC and Nessa saw their dogs shot to death and their bodies mutilated.

One of the witnesses reported that a black pickup truck containing three men was seen in that area on December 16. The first suspect is a white male in his late 20s with heavy long black hair and a beard. The second one is a white male in his late 20s and is having long blond hair. The third one is a black male in his late 20s and is almost bald or has short hair.