In Dallas, 35-year-old father has been jailed for murdering his 3-years old son. According to mother, Connie Michael, she isn't able to forget her son. It is difficult for her to take her son's image out of her head. She wished if she would do something to help these little kids come together. This type of incident is heartbreaking.

She added that she came home to the Greens of Hickory Trail Apartments in South Dallas at 6:30 pm on Saturday when she saw police lights and heard someone screaming. She then asked, what had happened? That man then said that Man has stabbed his girlfriends and his kids. When police were trying to control the situation, the lady asked the man identified as Brandon Edwards, hanging out of the second story window with a knife in hand.
