

52-year-old former baseball star John Wetteland arrested on child sex abuse charge

Posted by Sumit | January 16, 2019

Former Rangers pitcher John Wetteland has been charged and arrested in a child sex abuse case. According to Bartonville Police, the police officials got a reference of the case from the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services this month.

À

About Wetteland's career

Wetteland then started giving Bible classes at Liberty Christian School in Argyle. The name of the school is not mentioned in the police records. No suspicious activity by Wetteland has been reported so far from the school.