

Part of Denton police sergeant's ear bit off by a DWI suspect

Posted by Sumit | February 11, 2019

Denton police sergeant has been recovering after a brutal struggle with a DWI suspect. 45-year old Christopher Rogers, DWI suspect resisting his arrest and assaulted public servant, and even bit off a part of Denton police sergeant's ear. This incident happened after 11 p.m. on Friday night when Rogers was driving erratically in the 1500 block of I-35E.

À

According to Denton PD officers, Rogers was driving while intoxicated, behaved uncooperative with officers, and resisted to move out of his vehicle when officers asked him to do so. His arrest affidavit says that there was an empty bottle of vodka inside his vehicle. When police officers called for backup, Rogers resisted arrest and even punched an officer on his face.

À