Aditya Roy Kapur would play the role of the leading actor in the film. It looks like that the filmmaker has finalized the actress as well.

Experts say that Kriti Sanon has been finalized for the role opposite to the actor, Aditya. Though the title of this film is not yet known, it is expected to hit the theatres very soon.

No official announcement has been made by the filmmakers. It is assumed that the film will be a romantic thriller and would have one more male actor playing the lead role in the film.

In the coming months, the filmmakers and the actor and the actress are going to start working on this new venture.
