Padmaavat film starring Deepika Padukone, Ranveer Singh, and Shahid Kapoor in the lead role is one of the controversial films of the year. This year, the actress, Deepika Padukone was praised for her work in "Padmaavat". The actress also finds this film very dear to her heart. Her fame was not only the reason to why she loves the film so much. The other reason to why the actress feels touchy is that this is the third film that the actress did under the direction of the legendary director, Sanjay Leela Bhansali after giving blockbuster hits like Goliyon Ki Raasleela Ram-Leela and Bajirao Mastani.

Though the actress finds the entire journey of her film was iconic but she wants to get that outfit to make her journey memorable forever.
