Akshay Kumar aka Akki is super-busy these days. As of now, the actor was seen delivering high-value content on the big screen. But now, the actor has decided to make a comeback with the fourth installment of his comedy film, Housefull.

According to the reports from the close sources, Akshay Kumar will play the male lead role in the film directed by Sajid Khan. The only female lead that has been finalized for the film is Kriti Sanon who would be seen romancing Akki, in the fourth installment of the film.

Kriti Sanon will romance the Bollywood Film Industry, Khiladi. This is for the first time; the actress will be seen sharing the big screen space with Akshay Kumar. Kriti made her debut in the Bollywood Film Industry with Sajid Nadiadwala's film Heropanti in 2014. The actress is all set to show her magical chemistry with Akshay.
