

War director Siddharth Anand cleared that he would have discarded the film if Tiger Shroff had refused to be a part of it

Posted by Sumit | September 12, 2019

War director Siddharth Anand said that he is all set to come up with his film starring Bollywood star Hrithik Roshan. Despite the fact that Hrithik is in this film, the director revealed that he would have discarded the idea of making this film if Tiger Shroff had refused to come on board.

Â

War story revolves around the story of an Indian soldier, Khalid (played by Tiger), who has been given the task to eliminate a senior agent and his mentor Kabir (played by Hrithik) who has gone rogue.

Siddharth and Hrithik had worked together in 2014 in action-packed film Bang Bang. The first choice for this film was Hrithik because both of them share a good equation. After Bang Bang, he always wanted to work with him. Fortunately, he got a script wherein he could cast Hrithik and who else can stand in front of him except Tiger.

If Tiger had refused to come on board, the director would have dropped the idea of making this film. War featuring Vaani Kapoor in the female lead is expected to hit the screen on October 2.