Alia Bhatt is one of the super busy actresses of the year. This year, the actress has signed two big projects including 'Brahmastra' starring Ranbir Kapoor and Alia Bhatt and 'Gully Boy' opposite Ranveer Singh.

The actress returned to Mumbai after wrapping up the first scheduled shoot in Bulgaria. Alia is all set with a 20-day schedule for the film directed by Zoya Akhtar.

The shocking news for her fans is that despite her injury she is not taking rest and busy in making or signing more and more number of projects this year.

'Gully Boy' isn't an action-packed film so the actress can resume shooting despite her injury. Alia Bhatt is confident that she can resume the shoot. It clearly shows how determined the actress is, toward her professional front.
