Though Rajkummar managed to become a successful businessman, in the end, he might face stiff competition at the box office. His film, Made In China released on the same release date of much-awaited Taapsee Pannu and Bhumi Pednekar-starrer Saand Ki Aankh and Akshay Kumar-starrer Housefull 4.

Made in China is expected to earn Rs 3 crore (approx) on Day 1 of its release. This film story revolves around an unsuccessful business that learns from his failures and come up as a successful business tycoon.

Under the direction of Musale, Made in China received 3 out of 5 stars and tons of praise for Rajkummar Rao.
