Harsh Vardhan Kapoor turned a year older today and is celebrating his 29th birthday. The actor shares a good bond with his father Anil Kapoor and we must say that their father-son bonding is something more than just a father-son relationship.

Â

Anil proved his relationship with his son on his birthday by wishing him in a very special way.

Â

On his birthday, he wished Harsh on Instagram mentioning Happy Birthday Harsh. He is not only a great son but he is the one, Anil confides in, makes fun of, takes advice from & steals shoes from! He is an actor's best friend & now a rival and he absolutely loves actor as much as he loves him!

Â

Harsh marked his Bollywood debut in 2016 with film Mirzya. He then returned to the big screen in 2018 with Bhavesh Joshi Superhero. He has not announced his next project yet.

Anil's adorable wish for his son, Harsh is giving major father-son goals to their fans and audiences.
