Ayushmann has given so-many back-to-back hits in the last couple of years and Bala has added another feather to his successful ladder.

In Bala, Ayushmann Khurrana is seen as a 25-year-old guy from Kanpur dealing with premature baldness. The film is a motivational story throwing light on self-confidence despite aesthetic defects.

Bala produced by Dinesh Vijan and directed by Amar Kaushik deals with the skin obsession prevalent in our society.

Bala's film concept was almost similar to Ujda Chaman released, last week. Going by the Box office collection, it seems that Bala is expected to leave behind Ujda Chaman in terms of box office numbers.
