

Arlington: Several Shots fired during Black Friday shopping after a man saw two suspects

Posted by Sumit | November 30, 2019

Black Friday shopping in Arlington wasn't a usual one. Several shots were fired by a man who saw two suspects breaking into his truck.

À

The incident took place at 10 a.m., and police officers are still working on this case to find out exactly what happened!

À

According to the reports from the officers, the victim and his friend were walking out of a store in the 600 blocks of W. Arbrook Blvd. It was then they saw two male suspects breaking into his pickup truck.

À

À

Police officers stated that the man told them that one of the suspects took out his weapon and the victim thought it was a handgun.

The victim also had his legally-owned handgun and he started firing several shots towards the vehicle of the likely suspects.

Arlington police officers have issued a warning to remind everyone to lock their car doors and hide valuable things they are driving their vehicles.