Though the teen driver tried to flee away from the I-30 service road onto St. Francis Avenue in Far East Dallas, he lost car control and hit a utility pole that led to fall of power lines across all lanes of the highway

No teen was seriously hurt but I-30 was closed till the time Oncor cut the wires. The Responding Firefighters removed them from the road.

The 17-year-old teen driver was immediately arrested on charges- driving stolen SUV and evading in a motor vehicle when officers stopped them.
