Deepika Padukone and Vikrant Massey starrer Chhapaak is one of the most-awaited films of the year that the fans are eagerly waiting ever since the filmmaker announced the making of this film.

The filmmaker recently unveiled the trailer of the film and it managed to get thumbs up from the audience. The trailer showed some clips digging into the life of acid attack survivor Malti and inspired us how she emerged as a winner out of all disasters that changed her life.

Deepika took to her social media handle and shared this new poster and we must say the actress looks vulnerable and all-powerful in her new avatar.
