

Dallas: Man arrested for assaulting two women at White Rock Dog Park

Posted by Sumit | December 14, 2019

Dallas police officers have arrested a man who has been accused of assaulting two women at White Rock dog park.

À

Some part of the incident was recorded by the woman on her cell phone and it went viral within seconds on the social media.

À

On Monday, Chanise Condren recorded some part of their conversation. She and her wife, Ashley Garner, were relaxing at the White Rock Lake Dog Park with friends in the afternoon.

À

According to reports from the victim, their dogs were playing with the suspect's dogs and when the dogs turned aggressive, the suspect, Dale Coonrod turned up to Garner and started cursing her. She recorded the incident and it was then he knocked her phone away.

In her statement, Condren said that he was angry and very aggressive. The moment started from zero to a hundred in just a moment of time.

Coonrod has been arrested and charged with two counts of Class A misdemeanor assault.