Salman Khan starrer Dabangg 3 is running smoothly at the box office. On its week 1 of release, the film collected Rs 25.50 crore on December 20, then Rs 25.75 crore and Rs 31.90 crore on first Saturday and Sunday. But the second week has not been as good for the third installments of the Dabangg franchise as collected only Rs 4.5 crore on Friday.

The low response of Dabangg 3 in the second week is due to the blockbuster release of Akshay Kumar and Kareena Kapoor-starrer Good Newwz, which hit screens on December 27 and is doing great at the box office.

It is estimated that Dabangg 3 earned Rs 3 crore on Saturday and it seems that it will not be able to reach Rs 150-crore mark this week.

Meanwhile, on the work front, Salman Khan will be seen in Radhe: Your Most Wanted Bhai, under the direction of Prabudheva sharing screen space with Disha Patani and Randeep Hooda.
