

Jayam Ravi & Ahmed coming up with an original script

Posted by Sumit | January 30, 2018

Jayam Ravi is one of the popular actors who work in Tamil Films. After making his mark in the Tamil Film Industry, the actor is in full-mood to work with the leading Director of the Film Industry, Ahmed.

According to the latest news from leakers, the duo, Jayam Ravi and Ahmed are planning to come up with a film that would be the remake of Indian Khiladi, Akshay Kumar Baby. But the director confirmed that the new film would be based on an original script and would not be a copied one.

The director, Ahmed in an interview told reporters from the Newspaper, The Times of India that the film is an original one and in no case would resemble the Akshay Kumars Baby. He is currently working on the script of the film and would soon start full-fledged shoot.

Jayam Ravi is a super-talent actor who has signed up one more film that would be Indias first film in space. This film titled Tik Tik Tik is expected to hit the theatres with a bang. The eagerly waiting viewers would have to wait for more months to watch this film. Then is a thriller film under the direction of the director, Shakti Soundar Rajan and Nivetha Pethuraj performing in the film as the leading actor.

The actor would soon start the work on Sangamithra, directed by Sundar C. As of now, the film is put on hold. Ravi might be seen soon in the upcoming film directed by Ahmed. The title of the film is not known yet.