

Texas: Three suspects in custody, police looking for a fourth after a shooting at an Allen apartment complex.

Posted by Sumit | February 22, 2020

Three suspects in custody and officers are searching for the fourth one after the shooting incident took place at an Allen apartment complex.

À

A 39-year-old was hospitalized after the incident that was reported around 1 p.m. yesterday at the Gates of Allen Station Apartments on Exchange Parkway, across the street from Eagle Stadium. He was kept on life support as of Friday evening.

À

According to reports from Allen police, they saw a black Dodge Challenger speeding out the complex and making a felony stop.

Three people who were inside the car were immediately taken into custody and one has been gone missing. He was wearing a black hoodie and black pants.

As a precautionary measure, Allen High School and Lowery Freshman Center located nearby were placed on lockout because of the recent police activity in that area.