Bobby Deol is one of the finest actors of the Bollywood film Industry who was seen on the big screen, quite some years back. His last film 'Yamla Pagla Deewana 3' did a decent job at the box office. Though he was on the Cloud-9 in the '90s, he went into hibernation post 90s. Despite his superb acting skills, he wasn't signed by any filmmaker.

Bobby accepted his mistakes and admitted that his wife kept asking him to maintain his physic. Ignoring her words, his work-front went low. It was Salman Khan who encouraged him to look after himself. It was he, Salman Khan who looked for the personal trainer for Bobby.

Bobby now feels that his work is getting recognition due to the favor done by the actor only.

He is quite busy now. The actor would be seen with his co-star Salman Khan in 'Race 3'. After that, he would start another project, 'Yamla Pagla Deewana: Phir Se' and then 'Housefull 4'.
