

Anushka Sharma plans to build an animal shelter on her birthday

Posted by Sumit | May 01, 2018

Anushka Sharma recently celebrated her 30th birthday. According to the reports from the close sources, actress Anushka loves pets. She has even kept a pet at her home. Her pet is a Labrador nicknamed "Dude".

On her birthday, she has officially announced that she will build an animal shelter on the outskirts of Mumbai.

Anushka Sharma took to Twitter to announce this news. She always dreamt of building an animal shelter.

In her post, she mentioned that she is building this shelter for the animals who are stranded, left by their owners, or going through the harsh environment.

Her animal shelter would be a home for the pets where they would be loved, cared, and feel protected. She was planning for this project some years back and now her dream is coming true.

Anushka Sharma on the work front is currently busy in shooting for 'Zero' starring Shah Rukh Khan, Anushka Sharma, and Katrina Kaif.