Salman Khan and Jacqueline Fernandez would be seen on the bigger screen after years of doing movies together. Both of them would reunite showing their sizzling chemistry one more time. Earlier, the magic of their chemistry was seen in Kick. From the leakers, it seems that the duo would create the same magic and in fact more magic this time when on the stage of the sets of the Race 3 movie.

Salman and Jacqueline are planning to come again on the bigger screen under the direction of Remo D' Souza's film, Race 3.

Remo shared a sizzling picture of both of them:

This picture clearly shows how lovable the couple is on the screen. The two of them have wrapped up now from their hectic Mumbai schedule.

In the film, Race 3 viewers would see Anil Kapoor, Bobby Deol, Daisy Shah, and Saqib Saleem playing pivotal roles.

According to the latest news received from the leakers, Race 3 film will be available for release by the mid of June this year.
