â€˜Baaghi 2â€™ actress Disha Patani is all set to come up with her debut Tamil film â€˜Sanghamitraâ€™. According to the reports from the close sources, the film was expected to go on the floors in July but now has been rescheduled to the month of August.

Ever since its inception, this movie has gone through so many challenges. Shruti Haasan who did shooting for a few scenes took an exit from the film. Then Disha Patani grabbed this opportunity and started preparing hard for the film to play the lead role.

Good news for the fans is that the filmmakers are planning to release this film in three different regional languages including Tamil, Telugu, and Hindi.
